ABOUT THE INSTITUTE

Founded in 1923, the Government Vidarbha Institute of Science and Humanities (GVISH) is one of India's oldest academic institutions and the premier center for higher learning and research in the Vidarbha region of Maharashtra. Granted autonomy by the UGC, GVISH holds an elite 'A' Grade from NAAC with a CGPA of 3.32. Spanning a lush 168-acre wooded campus, it provides an inspiring academic atmosphere. GVISH teaches 23 subjects at the undergraduate level and 20 at the postgraduate level, with recognized Ph.D. centers in 22 disciplines. Over ten decades, it has shaped legendary figures including Dr. Vijay Bhatkar (architect of PARAM supercomputer), former Chief Minister Sudhakar Naik, and renowned literary icons Suresh Bhat and Ram Shewalkar.

ABOUT THE POLITICAL SCIENCE DEPARTMENT

The Department of Political Science at GVISH has a rich legacy. Political Science was introduced at the undergraduate level in 1951–52, and postgraduate studies began in 1962 when the institution was known as Vidarbha Mahavidyalaya. The department is a vibrant hub focusing on academic rigor, research excellence, personality development, and career advancement. It regularly hosts weekly seminars, mock parliaments, expert guest lectures, and educational study tours.
