Conference Objectives

Bridging Timeless Wisdom and Modern Scientific Inquiry Human civilization bears witness to the fact that India's quest for intellect and consciousness has always been universal and eternal. The Indian Knowledge System (IKS) is not merely a static historical record confined to the pages of the past; it is a dynamic, living, and progressive framework that continues to illuminate contemporary science, ecology, healthcare, and human values. Aligning with the visionary framework of the National Education Policy (NEP 2020), the Post Graduate Department of Sanskrit at GVISH, Amravati, is organizing this National Online Conference to explore the innovative ideas on this theme. The core objective of this academic congregation is to unravel the profound layers of Sanskrit literature—ranging from the computational precision of Paninian grammar (AI/NLP) and the architectural layout of ancient texts to the holistic healing systems of Ayurveda and Kautilya's socio-economic diplomacy and test them against the demands of the 21st century. As the modern world grapples with climate crises, mental burnout, and the ethical dilemmas of Artificial Intelligence, the timeless wisdom inherent in Sanskrit texts offers sustainable, human-centric blueprints for the future. This virtual platform invites global researchers, linguists, scientists, and scholars to forge an unflinching alliance between ancient analytical structures and contemporary empirical research.

About the Institute

Founded in 1923, the Government Vidarbha Institute of Science and Humanities (GVISH) is one of India's oldest academic institutions and the premier centre for teaching and research in the Vidarbha region of Maharashtra. Granted Autonomy by the UGC to the institute, holding an elite 'A' grade from NAAC with a CGPA of 3.32. Spanning a lush of 168 acre wooded campus, it provides an environment perfectly tuned for deep scholarly reflection. GVISH is a multidisciplinary institution teaching 23 subjects at UG level and 20 at PG level, with recognized Ph.D. centers in 22 subjects. Over ten decades, it has shaped iconic figures including Dr. Vijay Bhaskar (architect of the PARAM supercomputer), former Chief Minister Sudhakar Rao Naik, and legendary literary icons like Suresh Bhat and Ram Shewalkar.

Welcome to the Department of Sanskrit

The Sanskrit was being taught since very outset of the institute i.e.1923. This shows the legacy of Sanskrit Department. This department has fame as one of the excellent Post-Graduate department of Sanskrit in Sant Gadge Baba Amravati University, Amravati. Later on, Research Centre with all research facilities added a great value to it. The department has four full time sanctioned posts. The faculty members having good academic record are working enthusiastically for the development of the department. All faculty members of this department are highly qualified and experts in their specialized subject such as Sanskrit Grammar, Sanskrit Literature, Nyaya and Vedanta Philosophy, Ancient Indian Sciences. Department motivates students through innovative teaching skills and focused on blended interdisciplinary learning approach. Many research activities such as workshops, seminars, conferences, Symposia, exhibitions etc. have been organized and some are proposed. For the development of students NET-SET workshops, Spoken Sanskrit courses etc. are arranged frequently. Many cultural activities and extracurricular activities are held. This department has a glorious tradition of producing meritorious students in various competitions, NET-SET examinations and University examinations. The department has designed new curricula including all the aspects related to Sanskrit as modern relevance, interdisciplinary approach, skill development programs etc. Placement of students, in various fields, is up to the mark.
